

Shorehaven Golf Club is looking for an Assistant Golf Professional. (Please email resumes to Michael Laganza at mikelaganza@gmail.com)

This position reports to the Head Golf Professional. As an Assistant Golf Professional your job is to assist with the day-to-day operations and provide other professional services to ensure an exceptional customer service experience. In this position you will have a specific leadership role in Individual Instruction and Junior Golf.

Duties/Responsibilities

- Provide an exceptional service environment, meeting and exceeding all expectations of members and guests
- Maintain consistent communication with the entire staff to coordinate assigned tournaments, events and clinics
- Lead the Junior Golf programs; act as the Tournament Coordinator for assigned events
- Design, Coordinate and Execute Junior Golf Clinics
- Assist with Men's and Mixed Events when needed
- Rules Official for daily and tournament play
- Provide the membership with custom Club Fitting
- Lead with the Club Repair Operation at the facility
- Coordinate assigned outside member groups
- Maintain a regular schedule playing with members and their guests
- Compete in MET Section PGA tournaments when possible
- Continue personal & professional growth during the winter season
- Maintain good standing with the PGA of America, complete necessary MSR requirements

Golf Instruction

- Participate and/or lead in assigned clinics
- Be available to provide individual and group golf instruction to members and guests keeping the overall success of the operation in mind
- Continue personal development by attending seminars, studying the golf swing and keeping up with new technologies
- Foresight - Be educated and viewed as an expert

Management

- Junior Golf
- Golf Repair Operation
- Daily Golf Operation
- Mixed Events

Compensation

- Generous Salary
- 100% of lesson and clinic revenue (expected value of $20,000+)
- Full Health Benefits
- Meals while on Duty
- Playing and Practice Privileges

