

Assistant Professional- Westchester Hills Golf Club is seeking an Assistant Golf Professional for the 2022 season. February-November (flexible dates for the right candidate)

Resumes to BGiordano@pga.com

Successful candidates will have prior assistant experience and is a full PGA member or currently an apprentice seeking to become a class A PGA Professional. This position is a great opportunity for those motivated to become a Head Professional.

Duties to include but are not limited to.

- Assist the Head Professional in running the day to day operations.
- Train, motivate and work with our team to provide an exceptional experience to members and guests.
- Coordinate a successful club tournament program
- Provide instruction through clinics, programs, club fittings & private lessons.
- Play golf with members, represent the club in professional events and pro-ams.
- Bring new ideas and creativity to the team and operation
- Assist in golf shop operations

Compensation:

- Competitive salary ($1,000 per week)
- Lesson income
- Outing income including events not on Monday's
- Health, Dental & Vision Insurance
- 401K plan with company match
- Meals while on duty
- Housing available
- Holiday bonus
- PGA Dues
- Opportunity for advancement through Troon golf

About Westchester Hills

Located in the heart of New York's beautiful Westchester county, Westchester Hills Golf Club is a family-friendly private golf club in the stately Gedney Farms neighborhood of White Plains. Founded in 1913, our club is rich in history and camaraderie, and is a place where club members enjoy competitive golf tournaments, tennis, swimming, fitness, a full calendar of social events, casual and gourmet dining, host private functions, and much more.

The course is currently being redesigned by famed architect Rees Jones with play to resume in the spring of 2022. Westchester Hills is managed by Troon golf giving many benefits to the membership and employees of the club.