

Manhattan College, an NCAA Division I institution and member of the Metro-Atlantic Athletic Conference (MAAC), is seeking applications for vacant part time position of Head Golf Coach.

The successful candidate is responsible for all aspects in leading a competitive NCAA Division I men's golf program to include, but not limited to: recruitment of qualified student-athletes, hiring and supervision of any volunteer assistant coaches, match and tournament scheduling, coaching (practice and in-match), successful management of program budgets, fundraising, meet NCAA APR requirements while supporting student-athlete academic success, and develop championship teams while maintaining the highest ethical standards. Must be committed to and manage the program within the guidelines of the NCAA, MAAC and Manhattan College Department of Intercollegiate Athletic policies and procedures and will be expected to work cooperatively with all constituencies and campus units.

Knowledge Skills and Abilities:

Must demonstrate the ability to recruit, coach and improve (teach) talented student-athletes. Demonstrate the ability to market and promote Manhattan College golf program. Must exhibit leadership and professional behavior in dealing with student athletes and staff. Must be a team player, and have the ability to support and assist other employees. Develop a positive atmosphere for the program both internally and externally within the athletic department and College.

Description of Job Duties:

May include but not limited to: Manage and direct the program to include recruitment of qualified student-athletes. Match and practice scheduling, direction of all practices, teaching and demonstrating coaching skills. Successful management of program budgets and fundraising. Supporting student-athlete academic success. Develop championship teams, while maintaining the highest ethical standards. Work cooperatively with athletic personnel, attends department meetings and activities. Builds and sustains positive relationships with student-athletes, former players, faculty, alumni and staff. Represents the college positively when interacting with community, alumni, high school and club coaches, and media.

Qualifications:

Bachelor's degree, golf teaching and coaching experience. Have a valid driver license. Coaching and a former golfer at the college level is preferred.

Please apply on line at the college's job posting and e-mail your cover letter, resume and references to the wswab01@manhattan.edu.

Manhattan College is an independent Catholic Coeducational Institution in the Lasallian tradition located in Riverdale section of the Bronx. Women and minorities are encouraged to apply. We are committed to a diverse campus community. AA/EO Employer. M/F/D/V