

ASSISTANT GOLF PROFESSIONAL

About the job

Company Description

Brooke Management Group/Golf Channel Academy with Kelley Brooke is a full-service golf management and instructional company based out of Long Island, NY.

Role Description

As a full-time Assistant Golf Pro, you will be an essential part of our team, helping golfers of all abilities to improve, while learning your trade as an elite golf instructor through our Coach Education program. You will be responsible for supporting all aspects of daily operations providing outstanding customer service to golfers. Duties will include assisting with daily golf operations, assisting with group lessons, camps and group practice. There will be an opportunity to teach private lessons.

In season, a majority of the time will be dedicated towards teaching juniors and beginners.

Qualifications

- Strong golf playing background, college or elite level
- PGA/LPGA apprentice or other professional golf qualification
- Experience coaching golfers of all ages and skill levels
- Experience with swing analysis technology and software
- Knowledge of customer services and sales
- Excellent communication, interpersonal, and organizational skills
- Evidence of collaboration skills within a team
- Bachelor's degree preferred
- Passion for golf and a commitment to ongoing professional development

Pay Structure

40 hours per week. $20-$25 per hour (based on experience), 70% of private lesson fees

Company information

Brooke Management Group/The Golf Channel with Kelley Brooke has operated golf schools and golf venues in NYC since 1994.

Since 2003, the company has operated three golf centers, 4 golf school locations and three golf courses including the famed Bethpage Black (voted #1 Municipal Courses in America) and Montauk Downs Golf Course (#5). The company currently employs over 75 people.

Contact

Kelley Brooke, Managing Director- kelley@bethpagegolfcourse.com, 973-632-8776

Megan Younkman, Director of Instruction- myounkman@me.com, 813-967-1828