

Long Island National Golf Club
1793 Northville Trpk.
Riverhead, NY

Long Island National Golf Club is a private golf club on the North Fork with 12,000 rounds annually. Our club features an 18-hole championship golf course designed by Robert Trent Jones Jr along with a wonderful practice facility.

Teaching Professional
Job Description

Teaching Professional is a full-time position with a 5 month season which would begin May 1st and end September 30th. Main responsibilities will include instruction of individual and group lessons, member and guest club fittings, playing with members and assisting with some tournament operations.

Job Qualifications

- Candidate should have experience with all areas /skill levels of instruction.
- Should be able to plan and conduct junior and ladies clinics.
- Well versed in Golf Genius Tournament Software.
- Playing golf with members as well as in Met PGA Events.
- Conduct oneself in a professional manner and always maintain a professional image.

Compensation: $50,000 to $65,000

- Competitive hourly wage
- 100% lesson and clinic income
- Club fitting income
- PGA and LPGA dues paid
- Health insurance and 401K eligible as per club guidelines
- Year-end Bonus.